

THE WORLD'S Greatest Hatcher

"I made $500 last year from my poultry," writes a customer from western Nebraska.

You can do the same
if you use a

Queen
Incubator

Anybody can operate a QUEEN successfully. They are built to hatch without trouble.

If you keep any chickens at all, you should have a QUEEN. It will hatch your chicks cheaper and better than hens. Keep your hens laying the eggs, which make the profits.

Queen Brooders

will successfully care for your chicks when hatched. Our customers report raising 98 per cent to 100 per cent. Brooder chicks are much more easily raised than chicks with the hens. All QUEEN Incubators and brooders are built of best material, will last from fifteen to twenty years and give the highest average results of any incubator or brooder on the market. Every machine comes complete, ready for use, including a free book telling how to operate the QUEEN and how to make big profits.

HIDE AND FUR GOODS

Splendid Goods Made from Hides and Furs at Small Cost

Besides buying hides, raw furs and wool, the Lincoln Hide & Fur Company tan hides and manufacture them into robes and garments to order. The Herald has had some dealings with Mr. Cadwallader, the manager of this company, and takes pleasure in commending him and his house to its readers. Besides turning out first-class goods, they are accommodating and agreeable people to do business with.

Readers of this paper who may have hides or furs to sell, or who are in a position that they may at some time have hides or furs to be tanned, are requested to read the advertisement of the Lincoln Hide & Fur Co. and write for prices.

BIG HIDE AND FUR BUSINESS

Firm Advertising in The Herald Increasing Their Trade

Twenty years ago, J. A. Mitchell, manager of the Chicago Hide & Fur Co., began buying hides, wool, pelts, furs, etc., at Grand Island for D. H. McDonald. Since then the business has constantly grown and has been incorporated under the name of the above mentioned company with Mr. Mitchell as manager.

Favorable location, combined with enterprising and honest methods, has built up an immense business. There are other houses in Nebraska buying large quantities of hides and furs, but railway statistics show that twice as many are shipped to the Chicago Hide & Fur Co. as to any other firm in the state.
